

Presenter: LIN Shu-Fen (林淑芬)

Current Affiliation & Position

Research Center for Chinese Cultural Subjectivity in Taiwan,

Post-doctoral Fellow

Research Expertise

Phenomenology, especially on Hannah Arendt and Martin Heidegger

Applied Ethics and Meaning Therapy

For more information

Email

kerstin@nccu.edu.tw

kerstin3708@gmail.com

Self-introduction

Lin Shu-Fen is a Postdoctoral Fellow at Research Center for Chinese Cultural Subjectivity in Taiwan, she also has been an Adjunct Assistant Professor at Department of Philosophy, National Cheng-Chi University since 2018 and Fu Jen Catholic University since 2016. She obtained the Ph. D. (2015) at National Cheng-Chi University (Taipei, Taiwan). Her dissertation titled Love and Freedom: Arendt's Ontology of the Political was supported to be adapted for the public by HKR Humanities and Social Science which received grant from Ministry of Education in Taiwan. Her recent conference papers are Hannah Arendt's Concept of Natality and Plural Others ("Toward Plural Others" Conference, 2019) and Care for Natality Between Aging and Growing: Exploring the Experience of Intergenerational Becoming from Arendt's Narrative Action ("Language, Meaning and Action: Forum for Ethics and Practice in Chinese-speaking society, 2018).